DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

1. Restriction is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 and 372.

This application contains the following inventions or groups of inventions which are not so linked as to form a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1.

In accordance with 37 CFR 1.499, applicant is required, in reply to this action, to elect a single invention to which the claims must be restricted.

- I. Claim 1-6, and 12 are drawn to a process for determining the presence or absence of an antimicrobial residue in a sample of an egg, 1st special technical feature (i.e. 1st method).
 - II. Claim 8 is drawn to a test kit, 1st composition.
 - III. Claim 11 is drawn to a computer program in combination with a computer, 2nd composition.
2. The inventions listed as Groups I-III do not relate to a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1 because, under PCT Rule 13.2, they lack the same or corresponding special technical features for the following reasons:
 3. The technical feature appears to be Group I, determining the presence or absence of an antimicrobial residue in a sample of an egg. The art of Gabay, J.E. (Science. Apr. 15, 1994. 264:373-374) teach heat-denatured lysozyme devoid of activity retains antibacterial activity at page 374, paragraph 3. Therefore, unity of invention is not fulfilled because there is not a technical feature that is "special", in that the technical feature does not define a contribution over the art. Thus, the 1st method and 1st and 2nd product compositions are kept apart. As such, determining the presence or absence of an antimicrobial residue in a sample of an egg lacks unity of invention with the test kit and computer program compositions. Each of Groups II and III represent different compositions. The compositions are distinct, each from the other, because they have differences (test kit material verses computer devices) as reflected in the different preambles and components. As such, the compositions are distinct each from the other. Thus, should any of these Groups be elected, they will be examined only to the extent that they read on the process feature recited in the Group as defined above.

4. The examiner has required restriction between product and process claims. Where applicant elects claims directed to the product, and a product claim is subsequently found allowable, withdrawn process claims that depend from or otherwise include all the limitations of the allowable product claim will be rejoined in accordance with the provisions of MPEP § 821.04. Process claims that depend from or otherwise include all the limitations of the patentable product will be entered as a matter of right if the amendment is presented prior to final rejection or allowance, whichever is earlier. Amendments submitted after final rejection are governed by 37 CFR 1.116; amendments submitted after allowance are governed by 37 CFR 1.312.

In the event of rejoinder, the requirement for restriction between the product claims and the rejoined process claims will be withdrawn, and the rejoined process claims will be fully examined for patentability in accordance with 37 CFR 1.104. Thus, to be allowable, the rejoined claims must meet all criteria for patentability including the requirements of 35 U.S.C. 101, 102, 103, and 112. Until an elected product claim is found allowable, an otherwise proper restriction requirement between product claims and process claims may be maintained. Withdrawn process claims that are not commensurate in scope with an allowed product claim will not be rejoined. See "Guidance on Treatment of Product and Process Claims in light of In re Ochiai, In re Brouwer and 35 U.S.C. § 103(b)," 1184 O.G. 86 (March 26, 1996). Additionally, in order to retain the right to rejoinder in accordance with the above policy, Applicant is advised that the process claims should be amended during prosecution either to maintain dependency on the product claims or to otherwise include the limitations of the product claims. Failure to do so may result in a loss of the right to rejoinder.

Further, note that the prohibition against double patenting rejections of 35 U.S.C. 121 does not apply where the restriction requirement is withdrawn by the examiner before the patent issues. See MPEP § 804.01.

5. A telephone call was made to Attorney Kate H. Murashige on May 11, 2004 to request an oral election to the above restriction requirement, but did not result in an election being made.

6. Applicants are advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include an election of the invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143).

7. Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).

8. Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to Tammy K. Field whose telephone number is (571) 272-0856. The examiner can normally be reached on Monday-Friday from 7am-4:30 pm.

If attempts to reach the examiner by telephone are unsuccessful, the examiner's supervisor, Lynette Smith can be reached at (571) 272- 0864.
